

Louisiana Coordinated System of Care

System of Care Draft Questionnaire for Families

Governor Bobby Jindal and the Louisiana Departments of Social Services, Health and Hospitals, Education, and the Office of Juvenile Justice are working together create a new “system of care” for children and youth who have significant emotional, mental, and behavioral health problems. The goal is to help their families keep them at home, in their neighborhood schools and out of trouble.

If you have a child with mental or behavioral problems, we need your help. Please take a few minute to answer the following questions about the services and supports you and your child receive or need. Your answers are confidential and your participation will have no effect on the services you receive. It is not necessary for you to identify yourself.

1. Tell us about your child:
