

HUMAN TRAFFICKING in LOUISIANA

Arm Yourself with the Facts

A training for Law Enforcement Professionals Presented by: Dr. Corie Hebert, LMSW & the Louisiana Child Welfare Training Academy

The first step to combating human trafficking is understanding the core elements of the crime. This training covers the common myths surrounding human trafficking and dispels them with the facts, including statistics for Louisiana, a discussion of those who are vulnerable, the red flags to look for and how to take a trauma informed approach to helping.

There is no cost to register or attend this training session.
Seating is limited, so registration is required.

Visit <https://calendar.lcwta.org/search/Human> to register
Please note: This training is for law enforcement officials only.

September 23
1:00 - 4:00 PM

Registration Fee: FREE

Southeastern University Center
Room 139

800 W. University Ave.
Hammond, LA

Questions?

Contact Tech Support

985-248-0888
support@lcwta.org